

Article - Local Government

[\[Previous\]](#)[\[Next\]](#)

§25–603.

For a watershed project that consists of stream channel improvement or drainage, the board of directors of a watershed association in Charles County shall acquire any right-of-way or easement necessary to construct and maintain the drainage improvements and to dispose of excavated material according to standards of good drainage practice, regardless of the date that the watershed association was formed.

[\[Previous\]](#)[\[Next\]](#)